

Daniel March Papers
Adams County Historical Society

Accession No(s): 2009.011

Home Location: Rm 203, Rack 4, Shelf D

PREFACE

The Adams County Historical Society was established to “foster interest in the history of Adams County and vicinity, conduct research, preserve records and objects, mark sites, and pursue such activities as may be related to the history of the community”. The Society’s collections are privately held, maintained, and made available to the public for research purposes at the discretion of the governing authority of the institution and its staff.

INTRODUCTION

The Daniel March Papers was acquired by the Adams County Historical Society in February of 2009 as a gift from Robert G. March. The collection was processed the same month.

ACCESS

This collection is open for research, and viewing access to the materials is unrestricted. However, restrictions apply concerning the use, duplication, or publication of items. Please consult research room staff for specific information regarding the Society’s policies.

PREFERRED CITATION

Daniel March Papers, Adams County Historical Society, Gettysburg, PA.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Daniel March was a citizen of Adams County during the Civil War. He was drafted in late 1862, but he sent a substitute named Conrad Binn instead. After the war he submitted a claim for damages to the government.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection is made up of books, pamphlets, and newspapers.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Series 1 – Miscellaneous Papers

This series consists of the following: Draft notices from 1862, Mustering office notices, promisory notes dated 1863 and 1868, stock from the Gettysburg Rail-Road Company, dated 1859, fire protection policies dated 1863 and 1872, land survey dated 1849, land deed dated 1785, a damages claim dated January 1872, and several business receipts.

CONTAINER LISTING

Box #1

1-1 Folder containing deeds, receipts, indentures, fire insurance policies.