2003.116.303		A calling card to which an accompanying uncirculated 1954 cent (2003.116.304) had been taped. The card bears the embossed and decorated Presidentail Seal, below which is printed in script: "From Frank Wood / to D D E / to John Rice". Wood may have been a Treasury or Mint official. D D E are President Eisenhower's initials, and the line "to John Rice" appears to have been added in ink in a very skilled calligraphic hand. On the blank reverse of the card someone has added in blue ballpoint ink the hurried label in script: "Received at White House Dinner / from Pres. Eisenhower May 1955". This is written in John S. Rice's hand. The card is soiled and bears the stains of old tape, most of which has been removed. The circle on the right of the obverse of the card shows where the one cent coin was once affixed. See 2003.116.304 for the U.S. cent that accompanied this card. This document is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.

2003.116.304		An uncirculated 1954 U.S. Lincoln one cent piece with pre-1959 wheat reverse presented to John S. Rice by President Eisenhower at a White House dinner in 1955 (see 2003.116.303 for corroborating evidence). The obverse of the coin, minted in Philadelphia, is stained and toned from having been affixed onto a calling card with Scotch tape. This item is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.

2005.065.338		10" x 8" black-and-white photo of the attendees of the Gettysburg College commencement party held on June 8, 1969. John S. Rice had earlier received an honorary L.L.D. (Doctor of Laws) degree at the commencement ceremonies. In this photo Mr. Rice (in the light-colored suit) stands third from the left in the back row, which Mrs. Luéne Rice stands fifth from the right in the white dress. Note Mamie Eisenhower, wearing the dotted dress and seated on the settee. This image is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.

2005.065.406		5.5" x 3.75" black-and-white photo of President Dwight D. Eisenhower at the podium of the Gettysburg College campus to give a speech at the Founder's Day ceremony on April 4, 1959 (see too newspaper clippings in Rice family scrapbook 2005.065.521). The original label in album "A1" described this photo with "Gettysburg College / June 1955". However, although Eisenhower's official Presidential itinerary puts him in Gettysburg in early June 1955, it does not place him at the College giving a speech (http://www.eisenhowermemorial.org/presidential-papers/first-term/chronology/1955-06.htm). Therefore, this photo was not taken at the time John Rice was Chairman of the interim administrative committee--"first among equals" and in effect the virtual President of Gettysburg College--but four (4) years later when he was still chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College. There is thinning and a tear of unknown origin in the photo in the canvas awning between the two men. Item was removed from Rice family album "A1": page 27, photo 2. This image is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.
--------------	--	---

2005.065.454		8.5" x 7.75" black-and-white photo of a group of men in formal and semi-formal attire standing and sitting at a large, rectangular dinner table. John S. Rice, a member of the Zembo Temple in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, sits at right. Dwight D. Eisenhower sits, smiling, third from the right. The other men are unidentified. The label in white (placed on the negative in black) reads in full: "ZEMBO TEMPLE SOJOURNERS NIGHT / OCTOBER 1, 1965 / J. HERBERT RAYMOND / POTENTATE." Item was removed from Rice family album "A1": page 56, photo 1. This image is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.
2005.065.456		8.5" x 7.5" black-and-white photo of John S. Rice (second from right, back) and Dwight D. Eisenhower (left of center, light suit) among other men and a woman who are labeled the Gettysburg College Board Associates for 1966. Photo was probably taken on the campus of the College. Item was removed from Rice family album "A1": page 58, photo 1. This image is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.

PHOTO.00473	Mamie Eisenhower	Black & white photograph of Mamie Eisenhower standing next to a statue of Dwight D. Eisenhower at Gettysburg College during the unveiling ceremony on October 14, 1970. Following Eisenhower's death in March, 1969, the college's Board of Trustees named the building "The Dwight David Eisenhower House," and commissioned this statue of the President. The statue was based on this photograph of Eisenhower on the Gettysburg Battlefield. The photo was used on the cover of Eisenhower's book, At Ease: Stories I Tell to Friends, which was published in 1967 and became a best-seller. The creation of the statue was made possible by funding provided by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Simpson of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The sculptor was Gettysburg art professor Norman Annis and the work on the statue was done in the art department of Gettysburg College and in a studio that Mr. Annis owned on York Street. The casting of the statue was performed near Rome, Italy, and it was shipped back by air two weeks before the unveiling ceremony and office dedication. The official title of the work is "Eisenhower at Gettysburg" and it was unveiled ceremony on October 14, 1970. This image is part of the Adams County Historical Society's Eisenhower-related materials.
