

USAGE/ PUBLICATION FEE STRUCTURE

04/26/2004

Fees are granted for one-time, non-exclusive use and for the number of copies specified in the License Agreement. Any subsequent printings, new editions (new ISBN numbers) and/or different versions such as paperback releases of a formerly hard cover title require new permission and additional fees. All fees listed below are for each image used in each individual publication. "One time" use means for each media used and/or published. Therefore a published book, which bears an image from the Society's collections with a companion CD-ROM, that also bears an illustration of the same item or object constitutes two uses. A video documentary shown on television, which is then sold as a videocassette, or DVD, both of which bear an image used from the collections of the Adams County Historical Society constitutes two usages.

Commercial Publication in a Printed Source- such as a book, article, essay, monograph or calendar is $50.00.

Commercial Publication in an Electronic Format -such as a CD-ROM or DVD is $100.00.

Commercial Publication in a Video Format- such as television program, movie, commercial segment, or videotape is $100.00.

Web Site Usage - Use of an image from the collections of the Adams County Historical Society on a personal or commercial website is $100.00 per year. Images for web use will be of low resolution only (72 DPI).

Members of the Adams County Historical Society at the supporting level or above receive a 10% discount off the fees listed above.

Video and Audio Footage- for a motion picture, documentary, or presentation aired on television on in theaters is $200.00 per each "air" minute. Any fraction of a minute is billed for the entire minute of use.

Non-Profit entities shall pay 50% of the commercial fee rate.

Society Copy:

The Society requests one complimentary copy of all publications for its collections.