PREFACE

The Adams County Historical Society was established to “foster interest in the history of Adams County and vicinity, conduct research, preserve records and objects, mark sites, and pursue such activities as may be related to the history of the community.” The Society’s collections are privately held, maintained, and made available to the public for research purposes at the discretion of the governing authority of the institution and its staff.

INTRODUCTION

The Alexis Chritzman Collection was acquired by the Adams County Historical Society in 1993 from Dr. Walter L. Powell. The collection was processed by Chris Carter in June 2013. The collection is housed in one box.

The collection contains the family photos of Alexis Chritzman. These photos were obtained at a flea market in Gettysburg in May 1993, and are from the George W. Chritzman family. This collection offers research possibilities for those interested in the Chritzman family and seeking images of the family.

ACCESS

This collection is open for research, and viewing access to the materials is unrestricted. However, restrictions apply concerning the use, duplication, or publication of items. Please consult research room staff for specific information regarding the Society’s policies.
