

Arthur W. Weaner Collection, Adams County Historical Society

Accession Number: 2015.027

PREFACE

The Adams County Historical Society was established to “foster interest in the history of Adams County and vicinity, conduct research, preserve records and objects, mark sites, and pursue such activities as may be related to the history of the community.” The Society’s collections are privately held, maintained, and made available to the public for research purposes at the discretion of the governing authority of the institution and its staff.

INTRODUCTION

The Arthur Weaner Collection was acquired by the Adams County Historical Society in 2015 from the estate of Arthur Weaner.

ACCESS

This collection is open for research, and viewing access to the materials is unrestricted. However, restrictions apply concerning the use, duplication, or publication of items. Please consult ACHS staff for specific information regarding the Society’s policies.

To access files from the Arthur Weaner Collection, please submit a formal research request through our website or by phone and our dedicated staff of volunteers will consult the appropriate files within this collection.

PREFERRED CITATION

The Arthur Weaner Collection, Adams County Historical Society, Gettysburg, PA.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection is made up of property research conducted by Arthur Weaner (1926-2011), one of the foremost local historians of his time.

COMPREHENSIVE FILE LISTING

Note: Files are organized based on the first legal property owner of each tract. For more information, see The Manor of Maske: Its History and Individual Properties.
